

April 22, 2008

To: FCC

I recently heard of your proposal regarding the formation of a community committee to regulate radio content. This seems to be a violation of our 1st amendment rights. I quote, "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press". This a federal regulation you are imposing and, as such, is a governmental attempt to censor the rights of religion, free speech and of the press. While I realize in this politically correct age that certain radio content might offend people, I have a simple solution. If one is offended, change the station. It is a choice to listen. It is the right of radio stations to be able to say what they want, practice religion and to have rights as a form of the press. As an upstanding citizen of this country, I oppose this regulation and any attempts to curtail these rights.

Thank-you for your time,

Melodie Bradley